SunStar Strategic's New Offices Offer Easier Access, Enhanced Media Training Accommodations

ALEXANDRIA, VA, August 31, 2016 – Public relations and communications firm SunStar Strategic will move to a new location effective September 6, 2016. The new offices are the heart of the Old Town district of Alexandria, VA within the Washington D.C. metro area.

Despite being a mere half-mile from the previous location, the new office offers easier highway, airport and metro access, important to clients and employees alike. “This location, directly off one of the neighborhood’s major roads, makes it an ideal, easy commute for everyone,” said Kathryn Morrison, president and CEO of SunStar Strategic. “This space features expanded amenities and fosters an intimate team environment to bolster client service,” Morrison added.

SunStar Strategic’s new address is 300 N. Washington St, Suite 505, Alexandria, VA 22314. The firm also has offices in New York and Chicago.

“We are excited to grow into the new office, and look forward to hosting our clients in an improved space for our popular media training workshops,” said Morrison.

The New York office can be reached at (212) 705-4213 and the Virginia headquarters can continue to be reached at (703) 299-8390.

The firm, a certified Women Owned Small Business, specializes in financial services/investment management firms and companies concerned with environmental, social, and governance (ESG) issues and investments. SunStar Strategic designs and executes strategic marketing and public relations programs to stimulate growth. The firm's investment and responsible investing clients are winners with proven track records.
